Ward Blanchard, MFT, CSI, LCAS started his career within the field of mental health in the professionally fertile grounds of Southern California. With a Master’s Degree in Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) and as a Licensed Clinical Addiction Specialists (LCAS)—Ward’s passion for treating SUDs and Dual diagnosis focuses on treating clients through his unique Family Systems approach and modality.

Ward spent over a decade in Southern California furthering his education and experience working alongside some of the world’s most well-known addiction and mental health treatment centers like The Betty Ford Center. Ward has a passion around educating the professional community about SUDs, co-occurring disorders and chronic pain. Currently based in Charlotte, Ward founded The Blanchard Institute Treatment Center in 2017 as an effort to provide the most progressive family system, dual diagnosis support via Intensive Outpatient treatment. His private intervention practice, Blanchard & Associates, consists of a team of Clinical Interventionists that travel internationally in an effort to deliver family system style interventions to those in need.

Samantha Hampson, LCSW, LCAS, ICAADC raised in Europe, obtained her Bachelors of Science in Psychology from the College of Charleston and her Master of Social Work from the University of South Carolina. Samantha has experience in emergency medical social work, mental health treatment with adolescents, and treating adults in outpatient substance abuse programs. Samantha’s approach to treatment is helping individuals find hope and motivation for life in recovery. She believes that involving the individual in their treatment plan is vital in developing investment in recovery and aids in fostering trust between therapist and client.
